This home is located in the foothills of the Little Belt Mountains with a wonderful view of the Crazy Mountains. No matter whether you are looking out the front of the home or out the rear there is a mountain range that creates a breathtaking view. This is a single story home with a loft and double car garage. It is designed for entertaining family groups in a rustic setting. The home was done with natural wood inside and out, creating a warm relaxed atmosphere. Attention was paid to the smallest detail and touches include the rock fireplace and elkhorn chandelier. The home will sleep 10 people comfortably.
